Civil Ceremonies, Partnerships and Wedding Receptions

The Museum holds a full civil ceremony and partnership license and can accommodate ceremonies for up to 90 guests in the Mallett Gallery. We can offer options for smaller, more intimate ceremonies in a variety of small galleries, and larger ceremonies in the impressive Atrium at the heart of the Museum.

We have designed a civil ceremony package of galleries for the whole evening, starting in the Mallett Gallery for the ceremony followed by a Champagne reception in the Atrium, moving to the Randolph Sculpture Gallery for dinner and the vaulted café area for dancing and the party.

There are countless galleries offering fabulous photo opportunities to which access can be arranged depending on your special interest.

so well organised and fun ”

Ashmolean Galleries and Venues

Situated in the heart of Oxford, the Ashmolean Museum offers a spectacular setting for your wedding. The Museum houses Oxford University's collection of art and archaeology and all the galleries used for events contain fantastic examples of this rich collection.

Your guests will be impressed by the magnificent Neo-classical façade, while inside we can offer a range of beautiful spaces to provide the perfect backdrop to your special day.

The Randolph Sculpture Gallery

The Randolph Sculpture Gallery is lined with dramatic Greek and Roman classical sculpture.

The gallery is the perfect place for your wedding feast and can accommodate up to 150 guests on either round or long tables.

As this is your special day our friendly event managers are dedicated to making each wedding reflect the couple's style, and can help with ideas for those personal touches that make it 'your' day.

Ashmolean Dining Room, Cast Gallery & Café

In contrast to the Museum Galleries, we can offer the Ashmolean Dining Room as a venue for your wedding meal. On the very top floor of the Museum and overlooking the impressive Atrium, the Dining Room has a beautiful rooftop terrace for the summer months, including a lounge area and a lawn for a more informal feel.

The vaulted café is the perfect area to finish off your celebrations with a fantastic party.

The Cast Gallery offers an unusual space for drinks on arrival to the Museum, or a post-ceremony drinks reception.

“ Thank you so much for all your help. We are both still floating around in a blissful haze...”
